

BMES Student Chapter Development Report Guidelines

Overview

The BMES Chapter Development Report (CDR) is a tool for BMES student chapters to monitor and assess their progress on an annual basis. It is also the means by which chapters renew their chapter charter to stay nationally recognized.

This tool also acts as a measure for BMES to award student chapters for their successful operations, activities, and programs. As such, the CDR guidelines outlined below are designed to maximize each submitted CDR's Outstanding award potential.

We strongly encourage chapters to create CDR's as a record of their chapter's ongoing activities. Updating your Chapter Development Report yearly will ensure that your chapter records are accurate and up to date and will assist next year's leadership by tracking the previous year's programs.

Submitting a CDR is now a requirement; however, it is up to the chapters how many sections (and thus how many Outstanding Awards) they wish to submit for. Additionally, each CDR will have space to include the information for your one FREE BMES Student Membership – consider it your chapter's compliance reward for submitting a yearly CDR.

High scoring CDRs are also considered for the following awards:

- Outstanding Chapter Award
- Commendable Achievement Award
- Outstanding Outreach Award
- Outstanding Mentoring Program Award
- Outstanding Chapter-Industry Program Award
- Up and Coming New Student Chapter Award
- Outstanding Societal Impact Award
- Outstanding High School Chapter Award

There is no maximum page limit when writing your CDR, but we do request you be succinct in your submission; BMES encourages you to meet the requirement minimums while still being free to elaborate program details where necessary.

All CDR's must be emailed by June 1st to ryan@bmes.org in a single .pdf document.

Format Requirements

The only required page is the first page, Renewal Document. If you are submitting for awards, it is suggested you include all other pages listed.

Your CDR should be formatted into sections as outlined below to receive the minimum point allocations for award consideration; if your CDR does not contain each section or it doesn't adhere to the guidelines, you will not be allocated points for that section/s. Moving forward, chapter scores will be provided upon request.

XI. Industry and Professional Development Activities

Abstract

Our BMES chapter partnered with BioMedStart to bring BME professionals together with our student members in an effort to grow their resumes and provide real-life work experience. We have been able to arrange tours of various medical facilities to get hands on knowledge of surgery, clinical engineering, and neurology facilities. We also have an ongoing partnership with GEBMEFix to provide an internship to one of our BMES student members every year.

GEBMEFix Internship:

We have a partnership with a local BME company called GEBMEFIX where our BMES members are the sole candidates for a yearly internship in their med-device department. In order to apply each applicant must be both a national member as well as a chapter member in good standing, in their junior year of undergraduate, maintain a 3.5 GPA or above, and write a personal essay on how this internship will help develop their passion for BME.

We created this program to not only hone our technical skills and to provide an opportunity for our members to work together on med-device development, but to also ensure we used our knowledge to improve the community.
